

Council Elects New President

On June 22, 2018, Council elected Dr. Ivan McFarlane as its President for 2018 – 2019. This is Dr. McFarlane's second term as President. The election of a public member of Council to the position of President conveys the College's commitment to the public interest mandate of the College.

Dr. McFarlane is Senior Fellow at Massey College. He is a former part-time Lecturer with Trinity College, University of Toronto. He is also a former Professor teaching Sociology and Political Science courses at Centennial College. Dr. McFarlane was a member of the Council of the College of Psychologists of Ontario from 2005 to May 2014. He was appointed to the CDO Council on November 19, 2014.

His community involvement has included serving as past President of 211/Findhelp Information Services Toronto, a former Director of Moore Park Residents' Association and a former member of the Trinity College Board of Trustees. He holds a Ph.D., a Master of Studies in Law and a Master of Arts degree from the University of Toronto.

The College is pleased to have Dr. McFarlane as Council President for the coming year and looks forward to a continued, productive collaboration.
