Spring 2023 Webinar Series

Registration is Open!

The College is pleased to announce our Spring 2023 webinar series!

We have added two new topics to our line up: Practicing Through a Professional Corporation and Preparing for a Peer & Practice Assessment

Webinars earn you Continuing Professional Development credits. Individual completion and submission of self-directed learning assignments provide you with the opportunity to earn even more CPD credits!

During the Spring 2023 webinar series, the College will be offering the following online interactive presentations:

NEW! Preparing for your Peer & Practice Assessment (1.5 hours).

Overview of the peer & practice assessment process, including the purpose of the QA program, the selection process, how to prepare, what to expect during the assessment, the Assessors, the Assessment Report, outcomes, and the role of the Quality Assurance Committee; participate in interactive scenarios; optional self-directed learning assignment (number of CPD credits TBD).

NEW! Practicing Through a Professional Corporation (1 hour) Overview of the process for setting up a professional corporation including such things as shareholder requirements, naming rules, and obtaining a certificate of authorization. It will also discuss professional responsibilities and liabilities related to practising through a professional corporation. If you have wondered what is involved in establishing a professional corporation this session is for you! Optional self-directed learning assignment worth 3 Continuing Professional Development credits.

UPDATED! Advertising & the Guide to Using Social Media and Other Means of Electronic Communication in Practice (1.5 hours)

Review of expectations in the Standard of Practice: Advertising and the Guide to Using Social Media and Other Means of Electronic Communication in Practice; participate in interactive scenarios; optional self-directed learning assignment worth 6 Continuing Professional Development credits.

UPDATED! Restricted Title, Professional Designations & Guide to Dual Registration (1.5 hours)
